WITH MICHIGAN LEGAL PROFESSIONALS

The State Bar of Michigan's Face of Justice program connects young people with experienced legal professionals to answer questions, jumpstart networking, and demystify the route to becoming an attorney. From in-person presentations to virtual mentoring events, Face of Justice programs can be designed to accommodate students groups of all ages and sizes.

- Personalized to meet your group's needs
- Programming for elementary through law school students
- Virtual or in-person
- LinkedIn networking group
