PREFERRED PARTNER

DEAR MEMBER,

Cuba: Historically rich, culturally diverse, environmentally magnificent. For decades, the Caribbean's largest island—roughly 90 miles away from U.S. soil—has been but a mystery, perceived through secondhand sources and beyond the grasp of most American travelers.

Now that People-to-People exchanges are possible, we invite you to embark on a captivating journey that reveals Cuba's complex history and culture. This trip is specially designed to broaden your understanding of a nation of stark contradictions molded by a turbulent past. Time seems to stand still as you watch vintage 1950s-era automobiles roll along cobbled streets past beautifully preserved Spanish colonial buildings. As the hub for economic and political heritage, our base in Havana presents an ideal setting to interact with local citizens and uncover new perspectives. You will gain insight into the country's thriving arts community through discussions with independent artists and visits to performing arts schools and studios. You'll also journey beyond the spirited capital to fertile tobacco and sugar cane fields that permeate the countryside revealing a glimpse into rural Cuban life. Along the southern coastline, you'll visit the beautifully preserved colonial cities of Trinidad and Cienfuegos—both UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

This exclusive opportunity to explore Cuba is organized and operated by Go Next, Inc., which holds a People-to-People license from the U.S Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) authorizing registered travelers on this educational exchange program to visit Cuba. Go Next invites you to personally experience the people, culture, landscape and architecture of this distinct Caribbean nation on a week-long journey developed for the State Bar of Michigan.

With an intimate group of just 25 travelers, you will share enriching activities that illuminate the realities of Cuban citizens, providing an ideal gateway into their daily lives. Through informative and educational People-to-People exchanges, you will uncover Cuba's lush beauty, paradoxes and remarkable intrigue on this unforgettable adventure. Space is strictly limited, so sign up now. Don't miss this unique opportunity to unravel the mysteries of a fascinating country through its most candid, inspiring source—its people.

Sincerely,

Max R. Hoffman, Jr.
Chairperson, Membership Services Committee

P.S. This is another example of our efforts to harness the group purchasing power of our membership on your behalf, at no cost to the State Bar of Michigan. All expenses, including those of this mailing, are paid for by the provider.

DAY 1 DEPART FOR CUBA

Depart from Miami International Airport on your charter flight to Havana. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel. Begin your unforgettable journey in Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit a used book market where you'll have the chance to meet with independent Cuban booksellers and learn about the culture and impact of literature in Cuban society. (L, D) Parque Central Hotel

DAY 2 HAVANA

In the morning, visit the district of Alamar in the outskirts of Havana. Established as a social housing project in the 1970s, today the Soviet-style pre-fabricated concrete apartment blocks are home to thousands of Cubans. Meet with local residents and learn about the process of obtaining housing in Cuba and the tradition of multigenerational living arrangements. Continue to the fishing village of Cojimar, the setting for Ernest Hemingway's book The Old Man and the Sea, and visit Finca Vigia, the mansion where Hemingway lived from 1939 until 1960. Next, discover the Callejon de Hamel in central Havana where you will see local street art and music, and learn about the impact of arts in Cuban society. Dinner is on your own. (B, L) Parque Central Hotel

DAY 3 HAVANA

Travel west to visit Las Terrazas, a small community and nature reserve, designated as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Founded shortly after the Cuban Revolution in 1959 as a self-sustaining community, today the area is home to much of Cuba's tobacco farming. Visit the Clinica Las Terrazas, a local medical clinic, and get a rare glimpse into rural Cuba's medical services, remedies and philosophies. Continue to Café Maria where the owner and her family welcome visitors to sample coffee and discover the role of coffee in Cuba's culture. See the art studio of independent artist Lester Campa in his private studio and hear about his unique paper recycling process. On the journey back to Havana, visit the home of ceramicist and painter, Jose Fuster, "The Picasso of the Caribbean." (B, L, D) Parque Central Hotel

DAY 4 CIENFUEGOS/TRINIDAD

Drive south to Cienfuegos, known as the Pearl of the South, passing by small towns and villages along Cuba's autopista, or highway. Explore the main square and Punto Gordo peninsula, before meeting with the faculty, staff and students of the Beny Moré School of Art. Learn about how students are trained in visual and musical arts and take part in discussions about Cuban and American arts education. A native of Cienfuegos, Beny Moré, from whom the school takes its name, is recognized as Cuba's most famous singer. Also visit a ration store where the store manager will explain rationing, the two currency system and the difference between Ration Stores, Cuban Peso Stores and CUC stores. Continue to Trinidad, a charming old Spanish colonial town and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Lunch is on your own. (B, D) Iberostar Grand Hotel Trinidad

DAY 5 TRINIDAD

Visit the Casa de la Alfarero, a pottery house founded and operated by the Santander family for generations. Discover the process of ceramic production and have the unique opportunity to create a piece of your own. Tour one of Trinidad's casa particulares, or bed and breakfasts, where you will learn about this new entrepreneurial opportunity for Cubans, a business typically operated by the state. Next, see the Templo de Yemaya, where a Santeria practitioner will explain the basic principles of this Afro-Cuban religion. Enjoy lunch at the Hacienda de Manda Izuaga, located in the heart of the Valley de los Ingenios, a series of valleys once known as a center for sugar production. Built in the late 1700s, the mansion features an exhibition of paintings depicting the lives of slaves on sugar plantations. Then tour a local Cuban maternity home, and discuss with staff members the medical services provided to expectant mothers. Enjoy dinner in a private home known as a paladar, where you can meet with a multigenerational family and experience a bit of local daily life. Following dinner, you may visit either Casa de la Musica or Casa de la Trova, a community gathering where locals from all walks of life come to hear music and meet with friends—an ideal occasion for further engaging with locals to discuss community life in Cuba and the U.S. (B, L, D) Iberostar Grand Hotel Trinidad
