2010-2011 COMMITTEE ANNUAL REPORT

The committee also continues its support of programs administered by other public outreach organizations by providing volunteer time and resources. While the full LRE-PO committee only meets four times per year, each of the four subcommittees communicate and meet in between the full committee meetings to discuss issues specific to the respective subcommittee's Law Related Education and Public Outreach efforts.

SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

In September, the Constitution Day subcommittee supported the efforts of many local bar associations and schools by creating the message, creating a timeline, developing materials and in organizing and running successful Constitution Day programs occurring across the state of Michigan. Highlights of local Constitution Day programs were profiled in the UpFront pages of the October 2010 Michigan Bar Journal. The Chair of this subcommittee created a draft planning guide for use in planning a Constitution Day program, gave a power point presentation on the efforts of the Constitution Day subcommittee to the complete LRE-PO committee at the November 2010 meeting, and received approval of the state-wide Constitution Day themes for 2011 and 2012.

In December, the 34th Michigan Legal Milestone (Vincent Chin) was installed and prominently displayed in the median on Woodward Avenue at Nine Mile Road in Ferndale. SBM Executive Director Janet Welch and others spoke at the dedication that was very well attended and covered extensively in the print and TV media. In January, the Chair of this subcommittee gave a presentation on the efforts of the Michigan Legal Milestone subcommittee to the complete LRE-PO committee. The Michigan Legal Milestones program celebrates its 25th anniversary this year and will be dedicating the Milliken v Bradley case as the 36th milestone at the SBM annual meeting in September. The subcommittee and SBM staff are also working on updating the Milestone exhibit at the Supreme Court Learning Center, creating a geo-caching game linked to the Milestones using GPS technology, and collaborating with the Law Day subcommittee on joint efforts to promote LRE opportunities.

In March, the Chair and Advisor of the Law Related Education subcommittee, Chairs of the LRE work groups and members of the SBM staff gave a presentation on the efforts of the subcommittee including the gathering of links to an online clearing house of LRE websites, the creation of a SBM website dedicated to LRE, an overview of the plans to build Lawyer-Educator collaboration, and the plans to communicate the value of LRE. The LRE website is anticipated to be live and active by the end of 2011. Members of the LRE-PO committee also supported the efforts of the Michigan Center for Civic Education by providing volunteers to judge high school student mock trial competitions across the State of Michigan and further discussions regarding the SBM involvement and role in this Mock Trial program are planned.

In May, the Chair of the Law Day subcommittee gave a presentation on the efforts of the subcommittee to revamp and reinvigorate annual Law Day activities and the subcommittee is working with SBM staff on a new, more inclusive format that will include all 83 counties in Michigan. In 2011, the annual Law Day essay contest and luncheon were suspended as the subcommittee worked on developing more interactive methods to reach middle and high school students and it is developing ideas to collaborate with other LRE-PO subcommittees and other organizations on public outreach initiatives.

The LRE-PO committee unanimously adopted the SBM Diversity Pledge and will be reviewing ways to ensure the pledge is put into action.

Future Goals and Activities:

The LRE-PO committee will continue to look at ways to improve its subcommittee structure by ensuring that each lawyer member and each non-lawyer member are actively involved in activities that support the overall goals of the LRE-PO committee. Using this subcommittee structure, the committee continues to review, expand, and support public outreach programs in support of the committee's purpose and objectives to (1) implement programming that advances non-lawyer understanding of the law and the legal profession, with a particular emphasis on educational and community programs; and (2) review existing LRE programs for uploading to an online database, review potential collaborative activities amongst lawyers and educators, review the best methods of communicating the Value of LRE, as well as implementing and utilizing a Evaluation Form to provide valuable input and feedback on LRE programming. Each of these efforts is aimed at developing a phased in process of implementing highly effective LRE programming.

Other Information:

Each of the subcommittee chairs and LRE work group chairs provide regular (typically quarterly) written reports related to the activities and progress of their respective subcommittees and work groups.
