

On October 28, Willingham Cote' and Legal Services of South Central Michigan hosted a Lansing area Pro Bono lunch, where the presidents of the largest locally owned firms met to discuss the ways that their firms can relate to and support their local legal services program. Mike Cavanaugh from Fraser Trebilcock and Lee Reimann from the Willingham firm facilitated the discussion.