It's Time to Think of Your Best

Candace Crowley

This is the time of year when everyone is working hard and producing those key events that spell success for their associations. Over 125 separate State Bar section events occurred during March, April, and May of 2008. President Pappas will work at or attend more than 40 Bar-related events in a similar time span this year. Bar associations are planning for Law Day while they maintain all of their regular activities and even begin thinking of year-end celebrations. It's a focused time when dedicated people show their best and really bring life to our organizations. It's a perfect time to reflect on those whose efforts should be recognized in a larger setting. It's awards time.

Nominations are now open for major State Bar of Michigan awards that will be presented at the September 2009 Annual Meeting in Dearborn. New this year is the Kimberly M. Cahill Bar Leadership Award that will be presented to a recognized local or affinity bar association, program, or leader. The Cumiskey Pro Bono Award is looking for a winner. The State Bar will recognize one of your Liberty Bell winners with another award. Champions of Justice are coveted awards, too. And don't forget the Representative Assembly awards that are described separately in this newsletter.

The deadline for most awards is April 3. Application forms can be downloaded from the SBM website. It's a great time to thank those members whose work makes your association great by nominating them for a State Bar award. Think of your best!

Chief Justice to Address Representative Assembly at April Meeting

Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Marilyn Kelly will address the Representative Assembly of the State Bar of Michigan on the morning of April 18, 2009, at the Lansing Community College West Campus. The address will be broadcast live on Michigan Government Television (MGTV). The Assembly, comprised of 150 members elected from throughout the state, serves as the final policy-making body of the State Bar. More information on the Assembly is available online at <http://www.michbar.org/generalinfo/repassembly.cfm>. The agenda for the Assembly's April meeting will be posted online on March 23 at the link. The meeting is open to the public.

Representative Assembly Awards

Nominations are now open for the two 2009 State Bar of Michigan Representative Assembly Awards. The Michael Franck Award is given to an attorney who has made an outstanding contribution to the improvement of the legal profession. The Unsung Hero Award goes to a lawyer who has exhibited the highest standards of professional practice and commitment to the benefit of others. The Assembly encourages you and your membership to submit nominations. The nomination form for each award is available at <http://www.michbar.org/generalinfo/awards.cfm>. The deadline is Friday, March 13, 2009. The awards will be presented to recipients at the Assembly meeting on September 17, 2009.

Macomb and Irish Bars Join to Welcome Pappas and Toy

The joint meeting with the Macomb County Bar Association (MCBA) on January 21, 2009 was a great success. The ISIAL had a strong turnout for speakers State Bar of Michigan (SBM) President Ed Pappas and President-elect Charles Toy. Mr. Pappas entertained the crowd with a comical video of what certain jurists thought of him becoming SBM president before he spoke of the issues being met by the SBM. Everyone seemed to enjoy what became a festive meeting between the two groups. ISIAL and MCBA thank pub owner Tommy Mac, who upon seeing such a large crowd provided appetizers at no cost.

Immigrant Rights Project Offers Free Summits

The Michigan Immigrant Rights Project (MIRP) <http://mirp.mplp.org/> is pleased to announce the 2009 Statewide Immigrant Rights Summits. The first Summit is an opportunity for Michigan attorneys, community advocates, faith leaders, and others who serve immigrants or are concerned about immigrant rights to come together, share information, and seek new opportunities to collaborate. A full day of discussion groups and panels are planned, as well as a special address by State Representative Rashida Tlaib.

The first of two 2009 Summits will be held on Friday, March 27, 2009, at the Lansing Community College West Campus <http://www.lcc.edu/maps/westcampus.aspx> in the Executive Amphitheater. Registration is free, but please submit a registration form by Friday, March 20, 2009. Check-in will begin at 8:30 a.m. As part of the Summits, the Michigan Immigrant Service Provider Reference Guide will be updated. The Guide is available at <http://www.michiganimmigrant.org/providers>. For more information contact Susan Reed, susanree@umich.edu.

Oakland Diversity Committee Convenes Dinner

On Thursday, October 16, 2008, the Oakland County Bar Association's Diversity Committee hosted its bi-annual Diversity in the Legal Profession dinner event at the Townsend Hotel in Birmingham. The event started with a reception for presidents of many special purpose and local bar associations, and the dinner program included the presentation of the 2008 Leon Hubbard Award to E. Christopher Johnson, former vice president and general counsel of General Motors. The committee would like to thank all of the sponsors of this year's event. It was because of their generosity that nearly 20 students from Pontiac Northern High School were able to attend with their mentors from Thomas M. Cooley Law School.
